

Jonathan Farrugia joins the team at Capital Transmission

We are pleased to welcome Jonathan Farrugia to our Private Equity team in Geneva. Jonathan is a highly experienced merger and acquisition specialist with extensive expertise in structuring transactions in a wide range of sectors. He is also a former entrepreneur with a successful exit. He holds an MBA in Finance from ESLSA Paris.

Jonathan reinforces Capital Transmission's position as a key player in the Swiss private equity market. He will focus mainly on French-speaking Switzerland and partly also on the French market.

Jonathan is the second new member of the Capital Transmission team this year after Fabian Sigron, CFA in Zurich in May 2020.

About Capital Transmission

Capital Transmission is an investment company founded in 2008, based in Geneva (Switzerland), whose objective is to assist companies and entrepreneurs by providing equity and quasi-equity contributions, for amounts ranging from CHF 0.5 million to CHF 15 million.

The mission of Capital Transmission is to create lasting added value. In a balanced risk approach, the team invests in profitable mature companies, in Switzerland and France.

As a member of the BCGE group, whose equity it invests, CAPITAL TRANSMISSION benefits from the solid expertise of a renowned institution.

Our investment criteria

